Antea Huljev (foreground) and Karla Bonacic

Kansas State will begin its 37th season of women's tennis as the spring 2011 season opens on Jan. 21 against New Mexico in Manhattan. K-State (7-13, 4-7 Big 12) is coming off its best Big 12 record since the 2006 season and the most overall victories since the 2008 campaign. The 2010 season also featured the following highlights:

- K-State registered the first 7-0 win in the program's history over Kansas.
- The Wildcats defeated No. 70 ranked Texas Tech, 5-2, on April 25.
- Antea Huljev and Karla Bonacic each defeated a pair of ranked opponents in singles action, as Huljev defeated (63) Elze Potgieter of Texas A&M and (88) Ana-Maria Constantinescu of Oklahoma while Bonacic set down (61) Taylor Ormand of Baylor and (117) Melisa Esposito of Colorado.
- Last season's freshmen class of: Bonacic (12), Carmen Borau Ramos (10) and Ana Gomez Aleman (11) all captured 10 or more singles victories.
- Three Wildcats were named to the Academic All-Big 12 first team: Petra Chuda, Nina Sertic and Natasha Vieira.

The Wildcats will feature a very experienced lineup this season, as all six of the players from its primary lineup return this season. K-State will be led by senior Antea Huljev. The product of Velenje, Slovenia returns to the Wildcats for her senior season following a strong 2010 campaign which saw her finish with a team-leading 15-21 singles record, including an 8-10 mark from the number one position in the lineup.

During the 2010 fall slate, Huljev advanced to the second round of the ITA Central Regional for the third straight season and finished with a 3-2 mark in the opening portion of the schedule. With three singles victories this spring, Huljev will reach the 50-win plateau (47-59).

Joining Huljev in a leadership role this season will be juniors Petra

Chuda and Nina Sertic. The pair of 2010 Academic All-Big 12 first team recipients each put together strong 2010 fall results and will look to use it as a positive springboard into the spring season.

Chuda tallied a 3-4 record in the fall and captured the consolation title in her draw at the Hoosier Classic. Last season, the native of Sokolnice, Czech Republic carded a career-high 13 singles victories (13-18) and notched a 5-7 mark from the number six position in the singles lineup. Chuda has excelled when matches extend to a third-set, as she has built a 9-8 mark in three-set matches.

Sertic was one of K-State's strongest players in the fall, as she finished with a 5-4 singles record and a 6-4 mark in doubles action. Included in her strong spring singles record were a pair of finals appearances at a pair of events. This was a positive sign following her 10-23 mark from the 2010 spring season.

K-State will look to its sophomore class of Karla Bonacic, Carmen Borau Ramos and Ana Gomez Aleman to provide the Wildcats with a strong backbone to its singles and doubles lineups.

Bonacic overcame a slow start to her career to finish the season as one of the Wildcats' most solid players. The product of Split, Croatia finished her debut season with a 12-15 record, including a pair of wins over ranked opponents from Baylor and Colorado and an 8-3 mark in her final 11 matches of the spring. In the 2010 fall campaign, she notched a 3-4 record including a finals appearance at the Hoosier Classic.

Borau Ramos displayed a toughness in her rookie season with the Wildcats, as she was 3-5 in three-set matches and secured a 10-17 overall mark. Her first season was highlighted by a four-match win streak in the heart of K-State's Big 12 schedule.

Gomez Aleman pieced together a 4-5 singles record and a 7-4 doubles mark in the 2010 fall slate which shows an improvement over her freshman season. The native of Murcia, Spain tallied an 11-22 singles record during her debut campaign, highlighted by a three-match winning streak at the end of the 2009 fall schedule.

Newcomers to the roster this season include three freshmen: Petra Niedermayerova, Alina Piotrowski and Sarah Snodgrass. All three will be counted on to challenge for positions in the singles lineup, as well as provide the Wildcats with additional doubles lineup combinations.

Niedermayerova was strong in her first fall season in a K-State uniform, as she turned in a 3-4 singles record, which included a win in the consolation round of the ITA Central Regional. She also paired with Bonacic to form a strong tandem that registered a 5-4 record and an ITA Central Regional first round victory.

Leading the Wildcats will be head coach Steve Bietau. The all-time winningest women's tennis coach in school history with 231 career victories, Bietau enters his 27th season at the helm of the K-State program. Prior to the start of spring practices, Bietau took the time to answer some questions about the upcoming 2011 spring season.

Q: Did you feel the team made improvements during the fall season? If so, how?

Head Coach Steve Bietau: Our fitness level is at a better place than it was a year ago. Our team worked hard this fall and Aaron did a great job with them. I also felt it was very important for our team to have a better understanding of the commitment required to be successful in the Big 12. This is an ongoing process, but again, I think we made progress this fall.

Q: Are you pleased with the depth of talent on the roster? Has this made things more competitive in practice?

HCSB: Clearly our team is deeper and there is more competition within the group than there has been in the past. For the last two years we have had the same number one. This year I believe that we have as many as three players competing for that spot, and I say that knowing that Antea is one of our hardest workers. Karla is a different player than a year ago and Petra Niedermayerova was solid this fall in just her first semester. The bottom of the lineup was emerging as a strength last year. That's something I think will continue and hopefully accelerate this year.

Q: Has anyone taken ownership of this team heading into the spring season?

HCSB: Last year we had a clear cut leader in Natasha Vieira. This year there isn't such an obvious choice. The good news is that there are more options. We have several team members who are showing a capacity to lead, so it's going to be interesting to see who emerges.

Q: Do you feel the doubles team of Bonacic and Niedermayerova has grown together quickly enough to become your top doubles team entering the spring? Did other doubles pairs catch your eye during the fall?

HCSB: We spend the fall working with each player to develop their own doubles skills so that they can be a good partner regardless of who they end up playing with. This fall was a little different in the sense that some strong partnerships became clear early. Karla and Petra were a good fit from the beginning. Both have strong games that can be successful at the top of the lineup. They will have to work to grow as a team, but there is no question that they can be very good. With Antea/Petra and Nina/Ana, I think we have two more really solid teams. As I always tell the team, it's not about having the best doubles team or keeping any individual happy, it's about having the best three teams.

Q: How do you see your singles lineup shaking out as you enter the spring schedule?

HCSB: Antea, Karla, and Petra Niedermayerova all have the capacity to play in the top of the lineup. In the 4-7 positions it's anybody's ballgame. The competition for those spots has helped to drive a lot of individual improvements. So I am comfortable with a number of scenarios. The big thing is that we have the capacity to be better at every position. So it's going to be a lot of fun to see how it plays out.

The following are head coach Steve Bietau's thoughts on each student-athlete on the roster entering the spring season:

Antea Huljev - Having played number one the last two years, Antea has been taking the toughest shot from every team we play. That experience is invaluable. I always think it's important for seniors to have a good finish to their careers. You want it for that individual because of the effort they have put into helping the program, you want it for the team because it creates such a good example for the rest of the group to follow.

Nina Sertic - Nina had a strong finish to the fall season with good performances in singles and doubles (with Ana). Nina has always been a good mover on the court, but has started reducing her unforced errors and becoming much more consistent.

Petra Chuda - Petra continued to improve this fall. She is doing a better job of playing to her strengths and because of it, is much tougher on court.

Karla Bonacic - Karla is an exciting player to watch. She finished last year's spring season very strong and was able to build on that this fall.

Carmen Dorau Ramos - Carmen was one of our most reliable performers last spring. She rises to the occasion in matches and that's something you always like to see.

Ana Gomez Nemon - The sacrifices of last year should begin to pay dividends this spring. Ana is much stronger and moving better on the court. Ana showed exceptional maturity last year. I see her becoming a leader in this group.

Petra Niedermayerova - One of our strongest freshmen in a long time. Petra is a lot of fun to work with. Her level of emotional maturity is very high, and she sees things clearly during competition. This is such an advantage in college tennis. She has adapted well to the training and has become physically much stronger this fall.

Alina Piotrowski - Alina has worked hard on her movement and consistency this fall.

Sarah Snodgrass - Very coachable player. Sarah made some good improvements this fall. Her serve is better and she is better off both sides with her groundstrokes.

Head Coach
 27th Year | Doane College, 1979

Kansas State women's tennis coach Steve Bietau enters his 27th season as coach of the Wildcats. Bietau eclipsed the 200-win plateau in 2006 and his teams have won 231 dual matches in his prior 26 seasons as the leader of the Kansas State program. The continued success of his teams both on and off the court show Bietau's knowledge and commitment to Kansas State University and the Wildcat tennis program.

The 2010 Wildcats carded a 7-13 overall record and a 4-7 mark in Big 12 action. The seven wins were the most since the 2008 campaign and the four conference wins were the most since the 2006 season. Bietau guided his squad to the program's first-ever 7-0 win over Sunflower State rival Kansas and saw his team defeat No. 70 ranked Texas Tech 5-2, in the regular season home finale.

Off the court during the 2010 season, Bietau witnessed three student-athletes earn Academic All-Big 12 first team honors (Petra Chuda, Nina Seric and Natasha Vieira).

The 2008 edition of the Wildcats registered an 8-14 record and tallied an upset win over Nebraska in the Big 12 Championship first round. This is the seventh time in the last nine years and the Wildcats have reached at least the Big 12 Championship quarterfinals. K-State also placed one student-athlete on the All-Big 12 first team (Viviana Yrureta) and three student-athletes on the Academic All-Big 12 first team (Yrureta, Katerina Kudlackova and Natasha Vieira).

Bietau's 2006 squad finished the season 11-10, the eighth season in Bietau's tenure that the Wildcats finished with a winning record.

The 2006 Wildcats went 6-5 in Big 12 competition and finished undefeated in the north division. Kansas State spent the entire season ranked in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) polls and finished the season as the No. 54 team in the nation.

During the 2006 season, Alena Jecminkova, who played for Bietau and the Wildcats from 1999 to 2002, was named to the Big 12 Women's Tennis 10th Anniversary Team.

In 2003, the Wildcats had the best season of any Bietau team and posted a school-record 15 victories and a record-tying seven Big 12 wins en route to reaching the round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. K-State upset No. 9 Virginia Commonwealth and No. 16 Northwestern before bowing out to No. 5 USC in the regional semifinals. It marked the third time the Wildcats have advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Kansas State finished the season at No. 32 in the ITA final poll and were ranked No. 1 in the ITA Central Region poll. Individually, Petra Sedlmajerova and Paulina Castillejos were ranked No. 4 in doubles in the region, while Sedlmajerova (No. 8), Maria Rosenberg (No. 13) and Jessica Simosa (No. 21) finished the season ranked in singles in the region.

During the memorable season, the team posted a six-match winning streak, the fifth-longest in school history, and earned wins over NCAA Tournament participants Colorado and Missouri. Sedlmajerova was named to the All-Big 12 singles' team, while Sedlmajerova and Castillejos were selected to the all-conference doubles team. In addition, Sedlmajerova became Kansas State's career leader in both singles' (77) and doubles' (73) wins and third in singles' winning percentage (.620). Also, Hayley McIver and Andrea Cooper won 22 and 20 matches, respectively, becoming the first Wildcats since 2001 to have a 20-win season. McIver was twice named the Big 12 Player of the Week on April 1 and 15.

The success in 2003 was nothing new for Bietau, who has twice been named the conference coach of the year (1989, 2000) and ITA Central Region Coach of the Year (1990, 1996) during his 19 years in Manhattan.

The 2000 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year, Bietau had yet another successful season in 2000. The Wildcats posted 14 victories overall, the most since 1990, including a win over Kansas, the first win for Kansas State over the Jayhawks since 1973, and a win over then-No. 18 Baylor. For three seasons, Kansas State's Jecminkova qualified for the NCAA Singles Championships, while she won ITA Central Region and Big 12 Conference Player of the Year (2002), Central Region Player to Watch (2000) and All-Big 12 honors (2002, 2001 & 2000).

In 2000, he helped guide Kathy Chuda to a Big 12 No. 5 singles championship, Kansas State's fourth conference champion. In addition, Petra Sedlmajerova was honored as the region's Rookie of the Year and the Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

Bietau, also the 1989 Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year, has led the Wildcats to their only three NCAA Tournament appearances, with all three bids coming in the past seven seasons. Kansas State's 1996 team defeated Utah, 5-0, in the first round of the Central Regional, before falling to Kansas, 5-4, in the semifinals. In 1998, the Wildcats lost in the round of the regional to No. 3-seed New Mexico, 5-3.

Kansas State's success is due in large part to Bietau's outstanding recruiting, especially on the international level. Bietau recruited Kansas State's only two All-Americans, Yana Dorodnova (1998) and Karina Kuregian (1994) from Russia and Armenia, respectively.

Besides Chuda, Kansas State has produced three other conference singles champions under Bietau's tutelage, Karina Kuregian, Michele Riniher and Helen Schildknecht, and with Kuregian and Martina Shrubsole and Paulina Castillejos and Hayley McIver, a pair of conference championship doubles teams.

Bietau is also committed to his athletes' success in the classroom and over the years he has coached eight ITA Scholar-Athletes, three Verizon Academic All-America and All-District selections, including Sedlmajerova in 2002 and 2003, and 22 members to the All-Big 12 Academic team, including a school-record four members in 2003. In addition, his 1997, 1998, 2001, 2002 and 2003 squads each were named ITA All-Academic teams with a combined GPA of over 3.4.

Other strong seasons for the Wildcats include 1992, when Kansas State finished second in the Big Eight and 1989 when the Wildcats won a program-best 14 victories.

Over the years Bietau's work has been respected and recognized by his peers, and for his efforts, Bietau has twice been honored by the ITA, winning the Central Region Coach of the Year honor in both 1990 and 1996.

In addition to his coaching duties, Bietau has served as a member of the ITA's Board of Directors. He also served as the ITA Central Region Chair from 1992-97. In addition, Bietau was a member of the NCAA Women's Tennis Committee from 1992-96 and served as chair of the committee in 1997.

Prior to coming to Kansas State in 1984-85, Bietau served as head men's and women's tennis coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 1980-84. There, he led Hutchinson to a 13th place finish at the National Junior College Championships in 1984. While at Hutchinson, Bietau also spent time as a teaching professional at Prairie Dunes Tennis Club in Hutchinson.

Bietau, a native of Rockford, Ill., prepped at Rockford West (Ill.) High School and attended Rockvalley (Ill.) Junior College before transferring to Doane (Neb.) College where he graduated in 1979. During his playing career at Doane, Bietau qualified for the NAIA National Tennis Tournament three times.

Bietau resides in Manhattan with his wife Connie, their three sons, Brad, Drew and Justin, and their daughter Kayla.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE - A NATIONAL LEADER

The Big 12 Conference, despite being one of the youngest conferences in America, will continue its position as a national leader in athletics and academics as it embarks on its 15th season in 2010-11.

Since it began play in 1996-97 the Conference can boast of 38 team crowns and 440 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued last year, as Oklahoma State won the NCAA men's cross country title while Texas captured the national championship in men's swimming & diving. Texas A&M maintained its place as the nation's top outdoor track & field program, securing the NCAA crowns for both the men and women for the second consecutive year.

Big 12 squads continued to lead the nation in their respective sports as every single sport the Conference sponsors had at least one school ranked in the top six of the national rankings during the past campaign. In addition, nine different sports had the No. 1 team in the nation at some point during the 2009-10 season.

In addition to the NCAA crowns, several more schools made strong national showings. Five Big 12 volleyball teams competed in the regional semifinals of the NCAA Championship in 2010, the first time that has happened in conference history. The Big 12 also had a school play for the BCS National Championship (Texas) for the seventh season and placed two women's basketball squads (Baylor, Oklahoma) in the Final Four in the same season for the first time. Oklahoma finished second nationally at the NCAA women's gymnastics finals - an all-time high for the Big 12 - while Oklahoma State placed second at the men's golf championship. Iowa State was third at the NCAA wrestling championships and the Big 12 also placed a team in the College World Series in both softball (Missouri) and baseball (Oklahoma).

The individual honors also continued, as Jenny Barringer (Colorado) earned The Bowerman Award, presented for the first time to the most outstanding collegiate women's track and field athlete. In fact, all three women's finalists were from the Big 12. Caroline Hedwall (Oklahoma State) was named the recipient of the Honda Sports Award as the nation's top female golfer after capturing the NCAA individual title. Lisa Koi (Iowa State) earned the Honda Award as the top collegiate female athlete in track & field. Connie Yori (Nebraska) was the consensus Division I women's basketball coach of the year and K.J. Kindler (Oklahoma) earned national women's gymnastics coaching accolades.

The Big 12 has had four Heisman Trophy winners in its 14-year history. In 2008, the Big 12 established a high-water mark, as for the first time in the 74-year history of the Heisman four of the top five vote-getters hailed from the same conference, including award-winner Sam Bradford (Oklahoma). The league followed that recognition with two of the top five finalists in 2009.

During the past six seasons a total of 16 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including each of the past 13 seasons.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with its seven appearances in BCS title games. Seven league squads have played for the football national championship in the last 10 years with berths in 17 BCS games overall, including two each in 2007 and 2008. In the past two seasons, the Big 12 has had 16 players earn consensus All-America accolades.

In basketball, nine men's and six women's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past eight seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. On the men's side six different teams have reached the regional finals in the past three seasons - the first time since 1985 that any conference can boast of six different teams doing so over a three-year period. The Big 12 has led the nation in women's basketball attendance the past 11 seasons and surpassed its own NCAA record attendance mark in 2009-10.

Numerous national honors have been won by basketball student-athletes during the league's history. Sherron Collins (Kansas) was awarded the 2010 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award in men's basketball as the top player six-foot or under. Kelsey Griffin (Nebraska) gave the Conference a consensus All-America selection in women's basketball for the 10th straight year.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous academic recognitions. Cole Aldrich (Kansas) was the latest after earning Academic All-America of the Year honors in men's basketball in 2009-10. It marked the seventh time in the past five years that a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsman of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gault Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 249 scholars have received over 1.6 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 14 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The Conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 46 million people and television households in 18 of the top 100 markets within its geographic footprint.

The Conference conducts championships for 19 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national post-season competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the Bowl Championship Series.

In the last several years the Big 12 has increased its bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN and FSN. Most recently, the league renewed and expanded its multi-year arrangement with ABC/ESPN, Inc. The new contract began in 2008-09.

In its first 14 years, the Conference has distributed more than $1.2 billion to its 12 member institutions. The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in its 21 sports. The conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

In 2009, K-State welcomed a new president and a new athletic director, who will build on the successes of the past and create a bright new future. Kirk Schulz accepted the K-State presidency because he is impressed with all of the outstanding programs and successes of our faculty, staff and students and with the passion K-Staters have for their university. K-Staters connect with our new president via his blog, Twitter and Facebook. Check out his Web site at www.K-State.edu/president.

HISTORY AND LOCATION

Founded on Feb. 16, 1863, Kansas State University is the oldest public institution of higher education in Kansas and one of the first land-grant universities. It was located on the grounds of the old Blumont Central College, which was chartered in 1858. The university moved to its present site in 1875.

Throughout its history, K-State's mission has been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act -- to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond.

The 644-acre wooded main campus with historic limestone buildings is located in northern Manhattan (population of 50,000) and is convenient to both business and residential districts. It is located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hill of northeast Kansas. The university also has a campus in Salina, Kan., and another coming soon in Olathe, Kan., along with numerous extension fields, offices and other facilities in Kansas and Nebraska. The K-State Salina campus offers bachelor's and associate degrees in aviation and engineering technologies.

The university hosts the prestigious Landon Lectures on Public Issues, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966 the series has featured more than 120 nationally prominent speakers. Past speakers including Martin Luther King, Jr., Presidents Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, George W. Bush, and most recently Bill Clinton.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

THIS IS KANSAS STATE

HALE LIBRARY

The Student Guide to America's Best College Buys recently named Kansas State as one of its top 100 "best buys" among America's colleges and universities.

K-State is the only research university in the United States to have three national CASE/Carnegie professors of the year. All three are active teachers: Michael Wesch, 2008 national winner; Chris Sorenson, 2007 national winner; and Dean Zellman, 1996 national winner.

More than 250 majors and programs are offered in nine colleges. The Graduate School offers 67 master's degrees, 39 doctoral degrees, five educational doctorate programs and 33 graduate certificates in multiple disciplines across campus. More than $185 million is available in financial assistance, including $11 million in scholarships. Seven out of 10 K-State students receive financial assistance.

Even with 23,000 students, the university is committed to individualized education whenever possible. For example, freshman English classes have no more than 22 students, introductory chemistry labs average 15 students, and speech classes are limited to 23 students. Seventy percent of classes have 30 students or less and the average class size for all undergraduate classes is 23 students. Ninety percent of classes have less than 49 students.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Academic achievement of the institution is drawing national acclaim as well. K-State students have won more Truman scholarships, more Goldwater scholarships and more Phi Kappa Phi Fellowships than any other public university in the nation. Over the past twenty-five years, K-State has ranked No. 1 in the nation among public universities in Rhodes, Truman, Marshall

Goldwater and Jda Scholars. The university has earned its reputation as the "Student Scholar Capital of America."

K-State students have an outstanding record of acceptance into professional schools. Over the past four years, 70% of qualified pre-med applicants were accepted into medical schools; 100% of pre-optometry and 82% of pre-dentistry students were accepted into respective professional schools. Over the past five years, 98% of students who participated in our pre-law program were accepted into law schools.

He attended Old Dominion University for three years and transferred to Virginia Tech in 1984. He graduated with B.S. and Ph.D. degrees in chemical engineering in 1986 and 1991, respectively. He completed his doctoral work in metal oxide surface chemistry under the direction of Dr. David Cox.

He is a member of ABET, the recognized accreditor for college and university programs in applied science, computing, engineering and technology. He is also a member of its Engineering Accreditation Commission. Schulz is an active member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, and also the American Society for Engineering Education. ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

JOHN CURRIE

Director of Athletics

Wake Forest '93

There is no question John Currie hit the ground running in his first year as Kansas State's Director of Athletics. Even as he was being introduced as K-State's 15th director of athletics on May 18, 2009, Currie was beginning the implementation of a communications plan in an effort to restore the trust of all Wildcat fans, consistently emphasizing the importance of transparency and accountability as the foundation for K-State achieving its vision of a model intercollegiate athletics program. Over his first 12 months that plan included over 200 speaking appearances throughout the state and with K-State groups across the nation. Regular online letters and chats, K-State's first-ever fan forum conference call, which saw more than 3,000 fans participate, and more than 100 media interviews and talk show appearances further helped Currie connect with the Wildcat faithful.

Currie arrived in Manhattan June 8, 2009, to officially begin his duties. Just a month later Currie and his staff launched the "K-State Pledge," a series of financial accountability measures and core values serving as the base of K-State's vision of having a model intercollegiate athletics program. Among those values are five goals: a world-class student-athlete experience; value to the University, city and state; integrity and transparency in relation to ethics, finance and NCAA compliance; championship-level athletic performances; and the best fan experience in the Big 12.

In an effort to create the best fan experience possible, Currie's staff created new ticket initiatives for football that led to the largest home-opening crowd in Bill Snyder Family Stadium history on September 5, 2009 (50,750). The Wildcats also set new season total and average attendance records in baseball in 2010, sold a record number of season tickets for volleyball and had the largest average increase in the nation this past season in men's basketball.

Providing K-State student athletes a world-class experience is as high a priority as Currie's staff initiated new events such as the Powercat Choice Awards to showcase K-State's student athletes and a special graduation reception and ring ceremony to honor their dedication and hard work on the field and in the classroom. Kansas State's student athletes currently lead the Big 12 in graduation rate, including the highest football and men's basketball rates in the conference.

To help encourage support for the student-athlete experience and K-State's championship pursuits, K-State's fundraising efforts were completely overhauled with a new emphasis on personal interaction and communication for Ahearn Fund donors of all levels. K-State's supporters responded by increasing total annual fund cash gifts in Currie's first year by over 35% versus the previous year, to an all-time high of approximately $14.47 million.

Currie also worked to establish relationships and communication across campus, through steps such as personally visiting with K-State deans in their respective offices. He also serves as a member of President Kirk Schulz's cabinet and has made presentations and held question and answer sessions with many campus organizations. Student leaders have already recognized Currie's commitment to campus by inducting him into the Order of Omega honor society.

Understanding the importance of coaching continuity in building successful programs upon arriving in Manhattan, Currie immediately signed 2009 Big 12 Baseball Coach of the Year Brad Hill to a contract extension, completed a five-year contract for legendary returning football coach Bill Snyder and inked head women's basketball coach Deb Patterson to a contract extension. Then on March 6, 2010, Currie honored the dramatic academic and athletic progress of the men's basketball program by announcing a new five-year contract for 2010 Big 12 Men's Basketball Coach of the Year Frank Martin.

Currently a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Cabinet, Currie also serves the Big 12 as a member of the Game

CURRIE'S VISION FOR A MODEL INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAM

- Provide a world-class student-athlete experience
- Value to our University, community and state
- Integrity and transparency in relation matters of ethics, NCAA compliance and finance
- Championship-level athletic performances
- The best fan experience in the Big 12

Management/Officiating Sub-committee. K-State President Kirk Schulz and Currie's involvement to help secure the future of the Big 12 Conference and Kansas State's position as a long-term league member was a testament to Currie's knowledge of Big 12 athletics and their college experience but also for the history of the university.

Currie began his duties as K-State's director of athletics after 10 years at the University of Tennessee, most recently serving as Executive Associate Athletics Director under UT Athletic Director Mike Hamilton. Currie was responsible for the direct management of units that annually produced $84 million in revenue and gifts, including the department's fundraising, marketing, ticketing, media relations, public relations, internet and broadcasting offices. Currie also provided oversight for the men's basketball program and helped direct numerous searches including the 2005 hiring of future SEC coach of the year Bruce Pearl.

An integral member of the facility planning team for UT's $200 million master plan renovations for Neyland Stadium, Currie directed a $36 million arena renovation and basketball practice facility construction project that was completed in the fall of 2007. He developed and implemented the revenue models to fund both projects without outside funding from the state or local government, tax dollars or University derived support.

Currie's accomplishments at Tennessee included helping the University secure a $50 million commitment in 2006 for academic and athletic needs, a gift which represented the largest from an individual in Tennessee history. Units under his direction also negotiated an $84 million multi-media rights contract with ESPN, a $19.3 million all-sport contract with Adidas

Under his leadership, giving to Tennessee athletics more than doubled from $19.5 million in 2003 to $41.6 million in 2008. Tennessee's athletic facilities as a whole benefited from Currie's efforts as the development office secured individual leadership gifts that included $4 million for a new aquatic center, $2 million for a new softball stadium, $1.5 million for a new soccer stadium and $2 million for baseball renovations.

Currie joined the Tennessee staff in 1997 as Executive Director of the Volunteer Athletic Scholarship Fund (VASF). Following a two-year stint as Assistant Athletics Director at Wake Forest, Currie returned to Knoxville in 2000 as Assistant Athletics Director for Development and served as director for the "STEP UP" campaign. As UT's first-ever capital campaign, it exceeded its goal and reached a total of $48.6 million, $4 million over the intended goal, with gifts from 870 donors. In 2002, Currie was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Development.

He served as President of the SEC development officers group for 2004-05, chaired the 2007 CASE national athletic development conference and was a member of the SEC ticket policy committee. The Knoxville News Sentinel recognized Currie in December 2008 by naming him to its prestigious "Top 40 Leaders Under 40" list.

He began his professional career at Wake Forest in 1993 as a Deacon Club intern before being named Assistant Deacon Club Director in 1994, a position he held until 1997. Currie earned his master's in sports management from Tennessee in 2003 and is a 1993 Wake Forest graduate. He and his wife Mary Lawrence, have three children: Jack, Virginia and Mary-Dell.

THIS IS MANHATTAN, KAN.

WELCOME TO THE LITTLE APPLE

Manhattan is located in the northern end of the beautiful Flint Hills. The city was founded in the first days of Kansas settlement and currently has a population of 45,000 in the city 100,000 in the immediate region. It is a modern, progressive city that is home to Kansas State University, the Fort Riley Military Reservation and several successful corporate citizens. It is located in north central Kansas on Interstate 70, 125 miles west of Kansas City and 50 miles west of the state capital in Topeka.

It was on Valentine's Day in 1857 that Manhattan officially became a city in the Midwest. And it was only because the Kansas River had been low two years earlier that the city was located where it is now.

It all began in the spring of 1855 when the Cincinnati Company left Ohio on the steamboat Hartford. They were headed for central Kansas via the Ohio, Mississippi, Missouri, and Kansas Rivers. Their goal: to settle a town and name it Manhattan, thinking it might become a second Manhattan, New York.

On the way up the Kansas River, three men stopped, went ashore, and hired a wagon. They drove to what is now Junction City, where they intended to start the Manhattan of the Midwest. But the Hartford ran aground in the Kansas River south of the confluence of the Blue and Kansas Rivers. The Cincinnati Company and all of the small groups of settlers already in the area joined forces to form a town, which they agreed to call Manhattan.

The first post office was established in 1856, and the city became incorporated February 14, 1857. Manhattan has grown steadily since then. Although Manhattan, Kansas, may not be another New York City in size, residents of Manhattan of the Midwest think you'll savor the savvy of "The Little Apple."

"The Little Apple" is home to more than 50,000 people today. Manhattan is nestled in among the picturesque Flint Hills, so named for their numerous bands of limestone and flint. These bands of flinty gravel convinced many an early settler that the land was not suitable for cultivation. A few resourceful pioneers, however, chose to stay and build their farmsteads in the sheltered valleys where water was available even in times of drought and where their cattle could graze on the grassy uplands.

The Flint Hills region still remains largely untouched by the plow and is the last large preserve of native tallgrass prairie in the U.S.

Today, Manhattan residents take pride in the local history. The community is especially proud of its nickname, "The Little Apple"—symbolic of a polished, wholesome Midwestern Manhattan, founded by pioneers who foresaw great things for this part of the U.S.

A TRUE COLLEGE TOWN

A student-athlete's life involves more than academics and athletics. Like most college students, student-athletes need to relax and have a good time, and Manhattan is the place to do just that. Manhattan reflects the joys and opportunities of big-city living while retaining a friendly, open atmosphere. Manhattan has many appealing places to shop, eat and socialize. An award-winning shopping mall is located in the heart of the downtown region, and Aggieville — a district of shops and restaurants just beyond the southern border of the campus — continues to be particularly popular with students. There are several beautiful parks and walkways throughout the city, while picturesque Tuttle Creek Reservoir sits just five miles from campus for seasonal swimming, water skiing and boating. Additionally, the 13,500-seat Bramlage Coliseum have become a favorite stop for major concerts throughout the year.

AGGIEVILLE

- Southeast of campus, the area is named for former K-State Aggies
- Pre- and postgame area of activity
- Center of student recreation, nightlife and shopping

MANHATTAN TOWN CENTER

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Kansas State's Academic Learning Center provides a variety of services to help K-State student athletes excel in the classroom.

PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Kansas State tennis is unique in that it has a program that nurtures the development of its student athletes. This system begins with a focus on the period of transition from high school to college and continues throughout the college years. Finally, career opportunities are cultivated for the student athlete as he passes into the next phase of development where close contact is maintained for a lifetime.

COLLEGE TRANSITION/SUCCESS SEMINAR

- Focuses on skills needed for success in the college classroom as well as social and career development
- Areas of emphasis include:
 - Time Management
 - Financial Aid Information
 - Campus Orientation and University Resources
 - Study Skills
 - Reading/Writing/Communications Skills
 - Goal Setting
 - Career Opportunities/Selection
 - KSU Expectations
 - Success Orientation
 - Social Issues
 - Coping with life issues and problems
 - Problem-solving techniques
 - Etiquette

Kansas State tennis also has developed a model academic program for incoming student athletes.

- The student-athlete and his academic counselor work in conjunction with the Dean's office and the academic advisors for their major in an effort to provide the first-year student-athlete with the best academic course load and academic support services for each individual.
- For example, a series of core freshman courses have been developed within the areas of English, math and social sciences which provide a solid base for the pursuit of any major.
- Scheduled study times with trained professionals are held during the day throughout the week.

- This, of course, is in addition to the nightly study tables staffed with Academic Learning Center staff.

TUTORING AND MENTORING

- An effective and productive tutorial & mentoring support program for our Kansas State student athletes is the cornerstone of our student services effort.
- Participation by students in Intercollegiate Athletics takes an extraordinary amount of time and energy. Effective tutoring is a way to give back time to our student-athletes. We seek to accommodate any tutorial request from any student-athlete in any subject at any time.
- Tutoring support can be a powerful tool for the student-athlete to make up for time spent with their teams, and in their sport, and which allows our student-athletes to compete with the regular students in the classroom.
- Mentoring support in addition to tutoring provides additional support for student-athletes needing special assistance.
- Our professional tutoring staff will not only instruct students on the content of their course work, but on the study strategies needed for the course and the study skills necessary for independent learning.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE IN THE GYM

The Powercat Strength and Conditioning Program is designed to "build better athletes," not to develop powerlifters, Olympic weightlifters or body builders. Obviously, when most people think of strength coaches, they think of weightlifting. Kansas State's Moore Strength Complex boasts two weight rooms, over 12,000 square feet of floor space, 35,000 lbs. of weights, plus platforms, racks, benches and machines. In 2006, the John L. Allen Strength Center was completed at Tointon Family Stadium adding another 1,500 square feet of weight room access. Weight training is a big part of the program, but the strength and conditioning coaches at K-State do not coach weightlifters. It trains athletes. Speed development, agility, flexibility, coordination, endurance and nutrition are some of the areas that fall under the umbrella of strength and conditioning. Kansas State strives to develop the total athlete through a total body program. K-State employs nutrition counters in both strength facilities to "fuel the athletes" and equip them to meet the demands of training.

"Our strength and conditioning staff works very hard to help our players develop their full athletic potential. Significant gains are being made in both performance and injury prevention. They help our players be better athletes."
- K-State women's tennis coach Steve Bietau

K-STATE TRADITIONS

WILDCAT

Through its first 19 seasons of athletic competition, Kansas State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 season, new football coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats." The moniker lasted the one season Bender coached at K-State. Under football coach Z.G. Clevenger in 1917, the school team became known as the "Farmers." In 1920 another new football coach, Charles Bachman, took over the program, renaming the team "Wildcats." This time, the nickname stuck.

WILLIE WILDCAT

Willie, a student bedecked in a oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheerleading coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student portraying Willie is kept secret.

KSU COLORS

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complementary color for many years. Silver is also a common second or third color. Former head basketball coach Cotton Fitzsimmons incorporated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time. The term "Purple Pride," which is often used in association with KSU athletics, was given rise during the tenure of head football coach Vince Gibson (1967-74).

POWERCAT LOGO

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the K-State Powercat. The logo was introduced by Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university was changing. Manhattan native Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with head coach Bill Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the K-State football helmet, at Wagner Field, on the back of the Dev Nelson Pressbox, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere there can be one.

SCHOOL SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of an 1888 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from KSAC to KSU. The school's fight song is entitled "Wildcat Victory."

ALMA MATER

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell. I think of thee Alma Mater, KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee, thy children shall swell the cry 'Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater'."

WILDCAT VICTORY

"Fight you K-State Wildcats, For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight. 'Glory into combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!'"

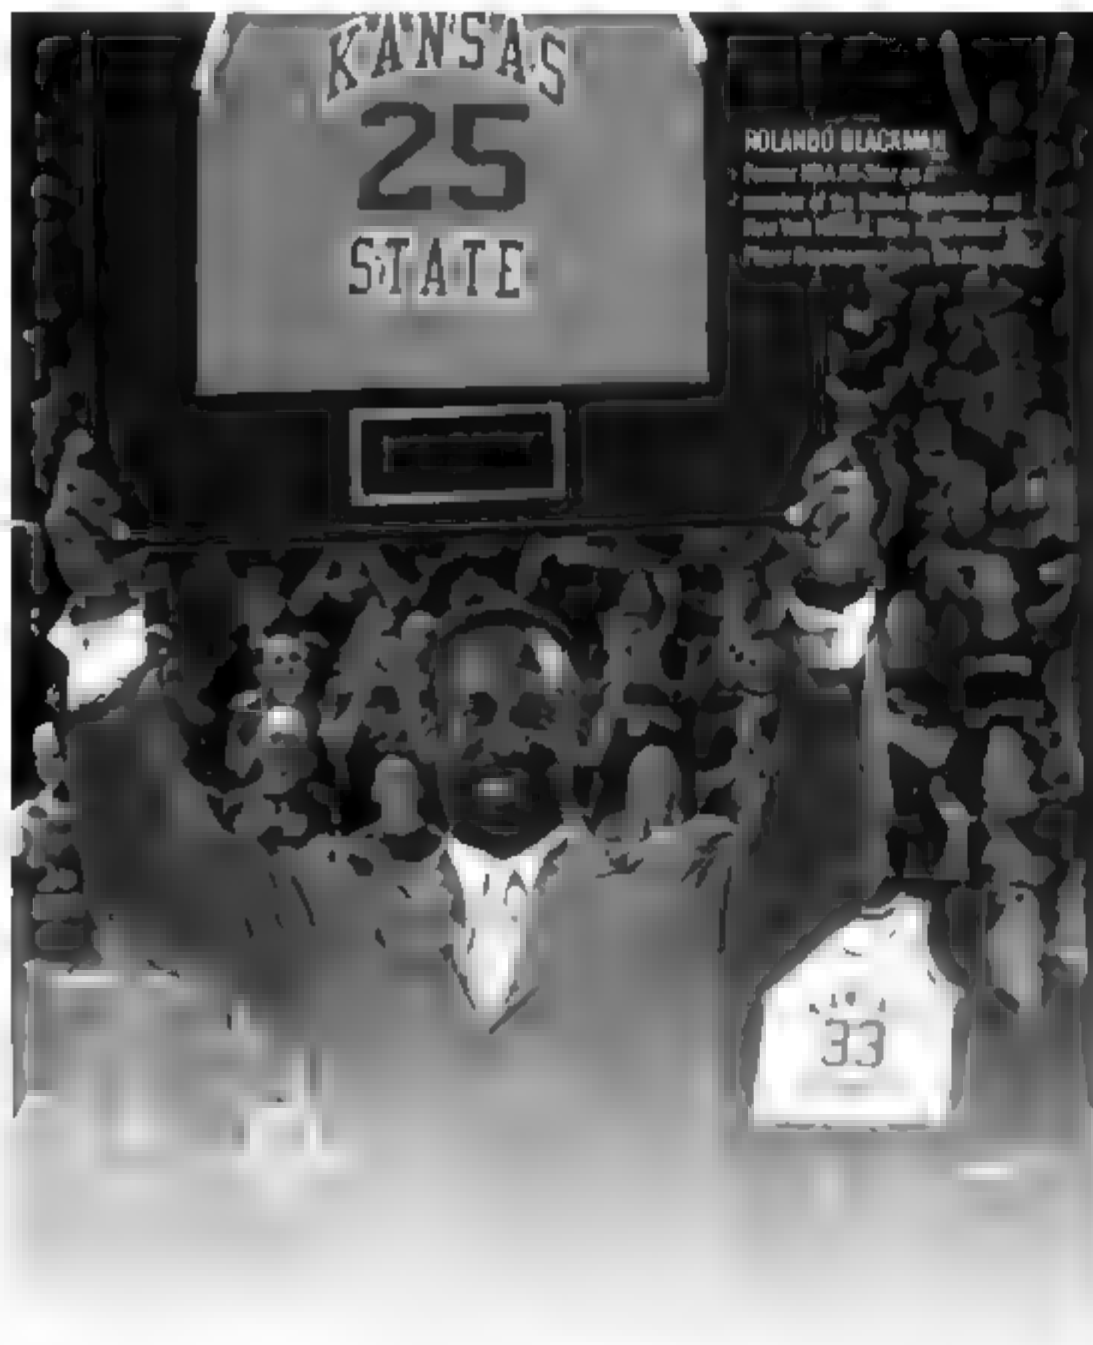

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of Wildcat athletics. In the fall of 1969, the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming football game and no music that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection became a second fight song.

SLOGANS

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" were mentioned earlier on this page. One slogan that has virtually died out is "Every Man A Wildcat." The term was popular in the 50s, '60s and early '70s, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box. Since the term referred to only one gender, however, it has faded. Kansas State itself is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State," which is used by alumni, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

WHAT EVERY ALUMNUS AND BOOSTER OF KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE NCAA

As a supporter of Kansas State University, you have a lot of pride in your school. You are proud of the high academic standards, our adherence to values and the overall quality of the K-State experience.

Kansas State has a long tradition of integrity but to help assure compliance with NCAA and conference rules, please take a few minutes to read this information. The eligibility of Kansas State's student-athletes and reputation of the department and university depend greatly upon your cooperation.

Under NCAA regulations, Kansas State is held responsible for the actions of our boosters. "Representatives of Athletic Interests" may not engage in any recruitment activities or provide benefits or privileges to prospective and enrolled student-athletes.

A representative is any individual who has purchased tickets, contributed to the Kansas State Athletics Department, donated to Catbacker or Alumni groups, or who has otherwise promoted K-State's athletics program.

KEY RULE: NCAA BYLAW 13.01.5

In Division I, representatives of athletics interest are prohibited from making in-person, on-or-off campus recruiting contacts, written, telephonic communications or e-mail transactions with a prospect or the prospect's relatives or legal guardians.

INTERPRETATIONS

1. A representative of a Division I institution is prohibited from making in-person recruiting contact with a prospect and his or her parents/guardian on or off campus.

Limited Exception: You may have contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has already signed a National Letter of Intent and K-State is aware that you are making these contacts in regard to employment.

2. A Division I representative is prohibited from writing or telephoning a prospect and his or her parents or legal guardians.

Limited Exception: You may have a phone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call. Such a call may not be prearranged by a K-State staff member and you are not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility. You must refer any questions about the University's athletic program to the athletic department.

3. A representative is prohibited from contacting a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.

Limited Exception: NCAA rules do not preclude you from viewing a prospect's contest on your own initiative, but you may not contact the prospect, pick up game films or transcripts.

WHAT CAN I DO?

If you know of a high school or junior college student-athlete who might want to attend Kansas State, the only permissible activity for a representative is to call the appropriate K-State coach.

WHAT IS AN "EXTRA BENEFIT?"

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a representative of the institution's athletics interests to provide a student-athlete or the student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation.

Examples of Extra Benefits:

- Providing transportation
- Clothes
- Entertainment
- Preferential loan terms
- Wages not commensurate with duties

WHAT CAN I DO FOR CURRENT STUDENT-ATHLETES OR PROSPECTS?

You may provide an occasional meal for student-athletes in your home. Please contact the athletics compliance office for more information.

You may invite a team to dinner or to meet a group of alumni in a city where they are competing. The NCAA allows student-athletes as a team to receive special benefits not allowed as individuals. Arrangements for such events should be made in advance with the head coach.

You may provide employment for a student-athlete. Wages must be commensurate with the going rate for similar services and only for work actually performed.

You may attend high school, community college and public events in which prospects are participating however no attempt should be made to contact or recruit prospects at these events.

You may continue established family relationships with prospects or student-athletes, their parents and relatives. Contact is permitted as long as it is not made for recruiting purposes.

WHAT IS NOT PERMITTED UNDER NCAA RULES?

Provide gifts, free or reduced cost services including meals, drinks, clothing laundry, haircuts, legal fee or other benefits to prospects, student-athletes, their relatives or friends.

Provide tickets to any event for a student-athlete or his/her relatives or friends.
